“The Call to See”

My friends, my comrades, I greet you with good news. Today is the best of all days. For the glory of god, and the redemption of humanity, I want you to see clear in all ways.

Therefore have I sought and found a new syllabus for our life course; that we may have a square to rule and guide us in our life's work;
that we may have a compass to circumscribe ourselves integrally;
that we may have a plumbline to raise ourselves upstandingly;
that we may have a gavel to divest ourselves of vanity;
and our trowel may spread o'er the cement of camaraderie;
that we may remain level on the straight path of the light work;
that we may have a book of law to know, to speak, the right word.

Powers of the kingdom, be beneath my left foot and within my right hand. Grant me entry to the temple which thy columns understand. Seek ye clear sight, always, by the word and the light of knowledge. Get thee information of the right sort. A wise friend may give counsel as much as any college. For many hands, comrades, make light work.

What Kogard sought the sea inside, is found inside the C:\ I scribed: a new Syllabus, once lost, is now found; Holiness to the Lord.
Qadosch Qadosch Qadosch Adonai Tzabaoth. The whole earth is full of thy glory!
